Dear Mr. Krilich:

Thanks so much for your letter of June 22nd, and for the kind words on the Foreign Affairs article. I hope that it will lend perspective to some knotty problems.

I appreciate your invitation to address the Alaska World Affairs Council. Present plans do not include any travel to your area in the near future. However, I will keep the request in mind and will be sure to contact you should such a trip materialize.

Thanks again and all the best.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ Stansfield Turner

Dear Admiral Turner:

I enjoyed your article, "The Naval Balance: Not Just a Numbers Game," in Foreign Affairs. Though I certainly can claim no academic expertise in planning and writing compositions, I do recognize your articles' clarity of organization and effective writing style.

I want to extend my congratulations on your recent appointment to the Directorship of the Central Intelligence Agency. It indeed is a timely opportunity for the Agency to have a leader of outstanding ability and fine character.

Should your travels bring you to Alaska, the local chapter of the Alaska World Affairs Council, of which I am a member, would sincerely enjoy hosting your visit as a public speaker.

Again, I repeat my best wishes for future success.

Very truly yours,

James H. Krilich

Dear Mr. Orefice:

Thank you for your letter of July 11th. We very much appreciate your invitation to organize a luncheon in honor of Admiral Turner. Unfortunately, his schedule is so full into the foreseeable future that we are not able to accept at this time. I will, however, keep your invitation in mind should a date and time become available.

Many thanks again for your kind offer.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hetu:

The Foreign Press Association, which includes the majority of all the foreign correspondents in New York and Washington, D.C. (450 members), would like very much and would consider itself very honored to have the opportunity to meet with Admiral Stansfield Turner.

We would be very pleased if we could organize a luncheon in New York in honor of Admiral Turner, this will give the foreign correspondents an opportunity to ask him some questions.

I am, of course, at your disposal for any further information you may require, and I would be very glad to visit you in Washington at your earliest possible convenience.

Hoping to hear from you I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Admiral Turner:

The enclosed copy of The Review Of The News is being sent to you with the compliments of Mr. Lew Hutchison, [redacted]

As an old high school classmate of yours, Mr. Hutchison thought that you might be interested in reading the "Overseas" report on page forty-one of the enclosed magazine. The report contains commentary about reactions to your appointment as head of the C.I.A.

For your information, a brief biographical sketch of the author of the "Overseas" report, Hilaire du Berrier, is enclosed.

Please accept our best wishes and feel free to let us know if we may be of any further service.

Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Knoche;

On behalf of the membership of the Green Mountain Chapter and on my own behalf, I would like to thank you for speaking to us at our Plattsburgh meeting. Your address was received with enthusiasm and interest and many favorable comments have been made to me since then concerning your appearance.

I realize that coming to Plattsburgh interrupted what would have been a relaxing week-end with your family. Your visit for us was definitely worthwhile and we only hope you received some enjoyment from it.

Enclosed is the result of the press interview. Additionally, there is a picture that you might like to see. The newspaper is the only local paper covering three counties.

I would also like to tell you that we enjoyed the company of [redacted] AT They are both charming and friendly people and impressed every one they met.

For an old intelligence type like myself, I was very proud to have a member of the intelligence community here addressing us. If in the future I can be of any assistance to you or your agency please let me know.

I hope we have an opportunity to meet again. Next time I'll watch the Bloody Mary closer.

I wish you success in all your future endeavors.

Gratefully,

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT : Speaking Invitation

Each year the Green Mountain Chapter of the Retired Officers Association holds one of its four annual meetings at Plattsburgh Air Force Base, Plattsburgh, New York. This year the meeting will be held on 25 June, with some 150 retired officers and wives in attendance at the Saturday noon luncheon.

Last year General Walters was the speaker, and this year they have asked once again for a CIA official to address the group.

Would you care to take on this pleasant task?

Andrew T. Falkiewicz

Dear [Redacted]

On behalf of the membership and on my own behalf I wish to thank you for coming to Plattsburgh to attend our meeting. I realize it meant sacrificing what would otherwise have been a relaxing week-end with your husband.

I hope we have the opportunity of meeting you again and if there is anything we can do for you in this area, do not hesitate to let us know.

I wish you continued success in your endeavors.

Very truly yours,
